PREFACE

THE "SALISBURY CITY DIRECTORY AND COMMERCIAL GUIDE" is issued in response to a general demand for a reliable publication containing the names, occupations and addresses of the residents, and a classified list of the various business houses and industries of Salisbury, together with other valuable information concerning our city.

In the residential portion of this Directory will be found the names and addresses of all persons over fifteen years of age living within the city limits, together with their occupation; also whether or not they are owners of the house in which they live. This ownership is designated by a mark (x) before the name, and is based only on information given by that person.

In the commercial portion of this Directory will be found a classified list of the various kinds of business carried on in Salisbury.

The Editor begs to acknowledge the material assistance rendered by the patrons and advertisers of this publication.

G. A. M. WILLSON.

Whatever Fashion
demands in Jewelry

it is made a part of our stock

WE are always searching for something new in Jewelry, and whether it be for ladies or gentlemen we can supply it. Our remark applies to Jewelry, sterling Silverware, Watches, Clocks, etc. We carry all the leading American watches: Waltham, Elgin, South Bend, Rockford, Hampden, Hamilton, and many others. Listen! these watches were laid down at our store at the lowest conceivable price. We pass them on to you at very small advance. We respectfully solicit all to see our assortment and get our prices before you purchase a watch.

Repair Department

We take special pride in our Repair Department—try to have all repairs give such satisfaction as to merit your patronage. Give us a trial. Satisfaction guaranteed; charges moderate for good work.

G. M. FISHER, Jeweler.

CITY DIRECTORY

The christian name of a woman in parenthesis after a man's name indicates his wife. Mrs. prefixed to a name indicates a widow. A mark thus (x) indicates that the person whose name follows is the owner of house in which they live. The accuracy of this ownership is not guaranteed for commercial information.

Special attention is called to the Index to advertisements in rear of book. The Commercial Guide will be found in last half of this book.

Table of contents on last pages.

SNOW } BREAD FLAKE }

"This is mighty good bread—much better than any we have ever had. What kind is it?"

"Why, it's from Hoffman's bakery. I have lately been reading their advertisements, but the kind of bakers' bread we have been getting had about discouraged me from trying something new. I was afraid all bakers' bread was alike until I understood what was meant by and then I decided to give this a trial."

Hoffman's Quality

"Well, I am glad you did, my dear, and if you are satisfied, Hoffman's bread will be good enough for us from now on."

MORE THAN ONE FAMILY HAS HAD THIS SORT OF EXPERIENCE

Why? Because too many people merely tell the grocer or send a child to bring "a loaf of bread," without naming any particular kind.

How easy to say, "A loaf of Hoffman's bread," naming the variety: "Snowflake" bread, "Butternut" bread, "Vienna" bread, "Cream" bread, "Rye" bread, etc. You can tell when you get it that it is what you want by looking for the name. That in itself is a guarantee of purity and quality—characteristics of everything made by the
